

2020 IIUSA
VIRTUAL INDUSTRY
FORUM NOVEMBER 10-19
LIVE WEBINAR DISCUSSIONS

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

EB-5 Government Affairs Updates

November 10, 2020

Get insights about what the results of the recent Presidential and Congressional elections mean for EB-5 along with the latest updates on EB-5 legislation, coalition building and other advocacy strategies that are shaping the future of the industry. You will also have a chance to hear straight from USCIS on IPO staffing, processing times, recent redeployment policy changes and more. This day is a great chance to get cued in on everything government affairs.

Panel 1 (12:00-1:00 PM EST): Post Election Outlook for the EB-5 Regional Center Industry

Panel 2 (2:00 PM-2:45 PM EST): Guest of Honor: Ms. Sarah M. Kendall, Chief of the Immigrant Investor Program Office (IPO) at USCIS

Panel 3 (3:00-3:45 EST): Assuring USCIS Priorities: EB-5 Expert Analysis

Regional Center and Project Trends

November 12, 2020

There are a lot of changes and evolving policies that dictate how regional centers operate in the industry. Panels on this day will analyze more recent trends that shape how projects are structured and how investors file petitions for the greatest chance of a positive outcome for all parties. Hear from experts about what is happening around the industry and how you can better prepare your projects and investors for success.

Panel 1 (12:00-1:00 PM EST): RFE and Denial Trends: What to Anticipate and How to Respond to Keep Your Project in Motion

Panel 2 (2:00 PM-3:00 PM EST): Redeployment: How the Policy Manual Update Affects Current and Future Investors & Projects

EB-5 & Beyond: Trends and Opportunities

November 17, 2020

Operating in the EB-5 space often requires interacting with people and industries beyond EB-5 and as the industry evolves and grows, this becomes more and more common. Learn about current trends that are influencing how the industry operates and how EB-5 is working with industries beyond its own to grow, adapt and flourish.

Panel 1 (12:00-1:00 PM EST): Opportunity Zones & EB-5: Working Together for American Communities

Panel 2 (2:00-3:00 PM EST): Real Estate Workouts: Unique Challenges Facing EB-5 in the Wake of COVID-19

Investor Market Insights

November 18, 2020

There is constantly something new to learn about EB-5 investors markets and what is happening here on U.S. soil is always influencing activities and trends overseas. These panels will discuss how COVID-19 and the U.S. elections are shaping both established and emerging markets around the globe and discuss other immigration paths available to investors.

Panel 1 (8:00 AM-9:00 AM EST): Emerging Investor Market Trends Around the Globe

Panel 2 (9:30 AM-10:30 AM EST): E2 to EB-5 A Viable Route to the U.S.? What About EB-1C?

Panel 3 (11:00-12:00 PM EST): Post-COVID Outlook for the Largest EB-5 Markets

Legal and Visa Considerations in EB-5

November 19, 2020

While hopefully a last resort, sometimes legal action is the only option to get results. Hear from the industry's leading legal experts about how investors, regional centers and even IUSA have used the courts recently to invoke action from the government. You will also hear from one of the industry's favorite and most anticipated speakers, Mr. Charles Oppenheim from the U.S. State Department as he provides his latest visa numbers and predictions. A follow-up panel will dissect Mr. Oppenheim's remarks as well as address other topics of the day, such as travel restrictions and immigration bans.

Panel 1 (12:00-1:00 PM EST): The Legal Game: How EB-5 Practitioners are Inducing Action and Information Through the Courts

Panel 2 (2:00-3:00 PM EST): EB-5 Visa Update with Charlie Oppenheim and Post Hoc Expert Analysis