INVITATION LETTER

Dear Immigration Project Partner,

Greetings!

At a time when the global landscape of cross-border mobility is undergoing profound transformation and the immigration industry is facing both new opportunities and challenges, we sincerely invite you to collaborate with us at the “2026 Global Immigration Industry Conference & Guangdong Immigration Association Awards Ceremony,” to be held grandly in Changsha, Hunan Province, from June 23 to June 25, 2026.

With the core theme of “Gather Global Wisdom · Create Future Opportunities,” this conference will bring together high-quality immigration programs from major immigration destinations worldwide, leaders of domestic and international immigration service institutions, senior legal experts, and elite industry professionals. Together, we aim to create a top-tier industry event integrating policy interpretation, resource matchmaking, and trend analysis.

As a benchmark annual event in the immigration industry, this conference will focus on global immigration policy updates, cross-border service innovation, and compliance-oriented operational management through multiple dimensions such as forward-looking policy analysis, precise supply-demand matchmaking, and practical case sharing. We firmly believe that the support of project sponsors is a key driving force behind the success of this event. Accordingly, we have designed multi-tiered sponsorship cooperation packages tailored for our partners. Sponsors will enjoy core benefits including comprehensive brand exposure (main visual displays, on-site exhibition booths, and exclusive speaking opportunities), targeted client engagement (one-on-one meetings with invited potential clients), and priority access to industry resources (information on participating immigration service institutions), thereby achieving dual enhancement of brand influence and commercial value.

As a major transportation hub and an emerging center of openness in central China, Changsha boasts both industrial vitality and strategic geographical advantages. Hosting the conference here aims to leverage the central China market to reach nationwide audiences and connect global resources. We sincerely look forward to partnering with you through this conference to deepen industry cooperation, explore new development opportunities, and jointly write a new chapter in the high-quality development of the global immigration industry.

If you are interested in becoming a sponsor of this conference or would like to learn more about the specific cooperation details (including Chief Title Sponsor, Diamond Sponsor, Featured Platinum Sponsor, Platinum Sponsor, Gold Sponsor benefits, etc.), please feel free to contact us via the details below. We will be pleased to provide you with a detailed cooperation proposal for your reference.

We look forward to meeting you in Changsha and celebrating this grand industry event together!

Conference Mission and Highlights

Conference Mission:

To establish a high-end platform for global exchange and cooperation within the immigration industry. Compared with previous editions, the scale of invited participants will be significantly expanded. Attendees will include presidents of immigration associations from various provinces and cities, chairpersons of immigration associations from the United States and Taiwan region, heads of top domestic immigration service institutions, leaders of member units of the Guangdong Immigration Association, and project representatives from around the world. Through in-depth discussions, participants will explore investment immigration project cooperation and industry development trends. This initiative aims to showcase the high-quality service brand image of Guangdong's immigration industry, enhance the visibility of the Guangdong Immigration Association, and strengthen industry cohesion.

Conference Highlights:

1. Global Resource Integration:

The conference will invite immigration experts, senior practitioners, and project representatives from around the world to interpret the latest immigration policies of various countries and present distinctive high-quality projects. Participants will gain one-stop access to global immigration dynamics and valuable first-hand resources.

2. In-depth Discussion of Frontier Topics:

Key topics closely aligned with current trends—such as “Innovation and Transformation of Immigration Services in the Digital Era” and “Exploring the Potential of Emerging Immigration Destinations”—will be featured, providing forward-looking insights to help practitioners grasp market trends.

3. Diverse and Innovative Communication Formats:

In addition to traditional forums and project showcases, the conference will introduce interactive sessions such as simulated immigration case analyses and experience-sharing by immigration service institutions, encouraging dynamic exchanges and enhancing professional capabilities.

4. Cross-Sector Collaboration to Unlock New Opportunities:

Professionals from finance, education, legal services, healthcare, and digital currency sectors will be invited to explore integrated development between the immigration industry and other fields, expanding business boundaries and creating more collaboration opportunities.

5. Showcasing Strength to Build Mutual Trust:

The conference agenda will be innovatively designed to include independent project presentations, keynote sharing sessions, on-stage interactions, and analytical dialogues. These formats will promote deeper communication and inspiration within the industry, strengthen mutual understanding and trust, and foster closer cooperation with shared outcomes.

6. Honoring Legacy and Staying True to Our Mission:

The conference will also organize visits to Shaoshan, the birthplace of Mao Zedong, including the former residence and Dishuidong, to reflect on the great leader's legacy and ideals. Participants will draw inspiration from his thoughts, remain true to their original aspirations, and contribute to China's high-quality economic development. In addition, attendees will visit Juzizhou, symbolizing the convergence of prosperity and opportunity, and jointly envision a bright future for the immigration industry.
